Pakistan is located west of India and China, with Iran and Afghanistan sharing a western border with Pakistan. Pakistan, although being a peaceful and welcoming country, has been severely harmed by the legendary war on terrorism waged by countries who have long admired Pakistan's landscape and blessings. According to the local media, the leaders of the war on terror have now wrecked the calm and tranquillity of various Pakistani areas in a game that no one understands. This is not an old game; similar games (Gilgit Game, Great Game) were played on this land by similar powers many years ago.
