The Golden Warrior and the bravest man I ever knew.

When Dave and I fought together, no matter how severe the action, he would put his hand on my shoulder, and it gave me a calming effect.

He was as fierce in battle as he was gentle in friendship.

I remember David as a kind, soft-spoken man and was intrigued that he was also Colonel Michaelis radio operator. All of these men were larger than life! Little is known about Michealis because he was in command of the 502nd for such a short, yet important, time.

Madame Rolle, owner of Chateau Rollea castle located in Champs outside of Bastogne, Belgium, and was designated as the headquarter command post for the 502nd Parachute Infantry Regiment when she was a young girl remembered our father operating his radio in her foyer, and said, He was a nice young fellow who kept talking to someone named Roger.

This collection of letters, written by a young 101st Airborne paratrooper soldier to his sweetheart from 1943-1945, is so personal and matter-of-fact that I almost forgot that David Clinton Tharp was only one of millions of heroes made by World War II. David Tharp certainly deserves a book like this in his honor, and it deserves to be read and praised. It is a must-read for every American, and especially for veterans of war.
