□□ This book was previously titled The Heir and the Human.□□

Axton's existence was a lonely one until his mother brought Sadie into his life. Now, she's the center of his universe, and he'll do everything in his power to protect her.

But Griselda's evil plans cast a dark shadow over their love, threatening the future he so desperately craves. With separation looming, Ax is preparing to sacrifice everything for the girl he loves. It's a high-stakes gamble, and he needs to stay ahead of the game if he's to outsmart his conniving mother.

Sadie has been his savior.

Now it's his turn to save her.

Note from the author:

This is a fully completed series.

This novella is an optional novella, however, I recommend reading it after Saven Defiance to maximize reading enjoyment.

This novella is narrated exclusively from Axton's point of view and it details some of Ax and Sadie's backstory. It also features some of the characters you have come to know and love from the main series.

This is not a standalone story and should only be read as part of the series.
