In the summer of 2015, history teacher Chuck Jager hopped on his bicycle in downtown Detroit and set off across Michigan. Over a five-day journey, Jager retraced the old Territorial Road, the route of Michigan pioneers in the 1830's. In Pedaling the Pioneer Path, Jager not only shares his adventures, but also the history of the road and the sites along Michigan's 19th century Main Street. Part history, part travel guide, and part memoir, this book will take you on a bicycle adventure across Michigan and back through the past.
