This is the second edition of Just Keep Going Man: Reflections and diaries of a nine city UK Tour: Edinburgh, Inverness, The Isle of Sky, Glasgow, London, Belfast and Portrush. Inspired by my social media following and a stranger I met on the Irish causeway, this is my story about a trip to my native country of Britain. It started out as a tour to some historical places, and a catch up with old friends. However, then the trip involved into something much more. I meet strangers who confined in me, and me to them, it became a search for a new home, and an emotional lookback on the seven countries that I have lived as an expatriate. The last six years in Qatar. It is also about the love and grief I have for my father who I lost 6 years ago. It's about overcoming adversity and still believing in my hopes and dreams—this is “Just keep going man.”
