How to Crochet the Lace Motif Fairy Hem Scallop Trim Scoopneck Shell

To create this stunning shell pattern, follow these step-by-step instructions.

Remember to use a crochet hook and thread that complements the desired drape and style of your final garment. It's important to also take accurate measurements to ensure the perfect fit.

Materials:

- Sport weight yarn (color of your choice)

- 3.5mm crochet hook
- Tapestry needle
- Scissors

Instructions:

1. Start by creating the lace motif following the provided chart or written instructions. The combination of double crochet stitches, chains, and picots will create the beautiful lace design.
2. Once the lace motif is complete, begin the shell construction. Work rows of double crochet stitches to create the desired length.
3. When you reach the armholes, shape the scoopneck using decreases and increases according to the provided instructions. This will create a flattering neckline.
4. Continue working on the body until you reach the desired length. Add the scallop trim to the hem by working a series of shells and picots along the edge.
5. Finish off your shell by weaving in any loose ends and blocking your garment to give it a professional finish.

Ways to Style the Lace Crochet Shell

The Lace Crochet Motif Fairy Hem Scallop Trim Scoopneck Shell is a versatile piece that can be styled in various ways. Here are a few ideas to get you started:
