2. Create a chain of four stitches using the hook.
3. Join the chain into a loop by inserting the hook into the first chain stitch and slip stitching.
4. Chain three stitches, which will act as the first double crochet stitch.
5. Create two double crochet stitches into the center of the loop.
6. Chain two stitches, and then create three double crochet stitches into the center of the loop.
7. Repeat the previous step three more times to create a total of four clusters of three double crochet stitches.
8. Chain two stitches, and then slip stitch into the top of the beginning chain three. Fasten off the yarn.
