As she grew older, Hayley's passion for athletics took center stage, and her focus shifted towards archery. Encouraged by her supportive family, she joined the Sherwood Outlaws – a local club that became her second family. With tireless dedication and relentless training, Hayley quickly rose through the ranks, leaving her competitors in the dust.

A Defining Moment

Hayley's journey reached a major turning point when she faced a challenging competition against her long-time rival, Xavier Rodriguez. The stakes were high, with both athletes vying for the prestigious title of the Sherwood Archery Champion. The air was filled with anticipation as the crowd eagerly awaited what promised to be an enthralling showdown.

Despite mounting pressure and a nerve-wracking atmosphere, Hayley's unwavering focus and sheer determination propelled her towards success. With each arrow released, she showcased her exceptional marksmanship, hitting bullseye after bullseye. Her natural talent and hard work made her a force to be reckoned with, ultimately leading her to outlast Xavier and claim the title of Sherwood Archery Champion.

A Global Stage

News of Hayley's remarkable victory spread like wildfire, capturing the attention of archery enthusiasts from around the world. Recognizing her immense potential, Hayley was invited to participate in various international tournaments, where she continued to leave an indelible mark. Her captivating performances and unwavering spirit earned her a place among the elite, solidifying her status as a true trailblazer in the realm of archery.

When you can't run any farther, all that's left is to stand and fight.

As Maryanne Warren watches Rob disappear into the forest toward Nottingham on the back of a horse, there are just two things she wants.

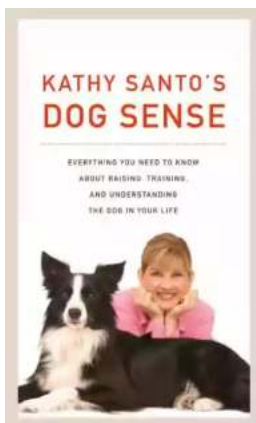

The first is to bring Rob back alive.

The second is to make Gisborne pay.

If she doesn't move fast enough and Rob dies, it'll be because of Gisborne. If that happens, she'll settle for focusing on only the second of those two objectives. She doesn't care that Gisborne's leading her right to the gates of Nottingham Castle into a likely trap. She just wants this to be over.

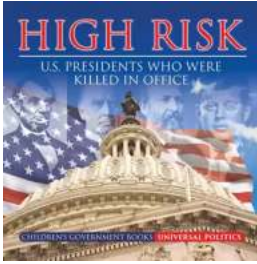

And it will be.

One way or another, she'll make sure of it.
