Which train exit should I take? What time is it open? Is it free admission? Where can I contact them for queries?

The Yellow List: 100 Best of Hong Kong answers all. This is your ultimate travel guidebook to the best of the city. We've curated a list of 100 things to see, food to taste, and activities to try while in town. We've even included festivals to experience, and people you should know about — like those who have greatly influenced the way the city is today. From big, must-see spots to hidden gems, each page is packed with all the information you need to have an amazing trip.

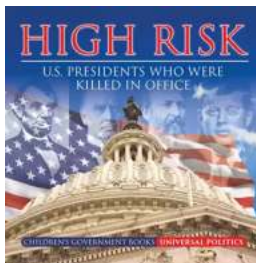

We've meticulously put together each page with the traveller in mind. You'll find an overview and detailed maps; opening hours; addresses; websites and emails; and telephone numbers. There are striking images, and a bit of history and trivia, too.

The 100 entries are loosely ranked, as we understand the individuality of each traveller — a strong point of interest for one may not be the same for another. One thing is certain, though — the 100 entries you'll find here truly are the best the city has to offer.
