

Seoul Travel Guide - Unanchor Days In The Vibrant City Of Seoul And The Serene

Welcome to the ultimate Seoul travel guide, where we will take you on an unforgettable journey through the vibrant city of Seoul and its serene surroundings. Whether you are a history buff, a food lover, a shopaholic, or an adventure seeker, Seoul has something to offer for everyone.

Discover Seoul's Vibrant Culture

Seoul is a city bursting with culture and history. From the grand palaces to the lively markets, there is so much to explore. Start your journey at Gyeongbokgung Palace, the largest palace in Seoul, and immerse yourself in the grandeur of ancient Korean architecture. Don't miss the changing of the guards ceremony, a centuries-old tradition that is not to be missed.

Afterward, take a stroll through Insadong, a neighborhood known for its traditional crafts and antiques. Here, you can find unique souvenirs to take back home and witness the traditional Korean art forms.

No trip to Seoul is complete without visiting the iconic N Seoul Tower. Take a cable car up to the top and enjoy breathtaking panoramic views of the city. This is also the perfect spot to capture memorable photos.

Culinary Adventures Await

Seoul is a food lover's paradise, offering a wide range of culinary delights. Indulge in samgyeopsal, Korean BBQ, where you can grill your own meat at the table. Try the famous bibimbap, a traditional Korean dish consisting of rice, vegetables, and a variety of toppings.

For a unique dining experience, head to Gwangjang Market, one of Seoul's oldest and busiest markets. Here, you can sample a variety of street foods such as tteokbokki (spicy rice cakes) and mandu (dumplings).

Don't forget to treat yourself to some delicious street snacks like hotteok (sweet pancakes) and bungeoppang (fish-shaped waffles). These mouthwatering treats are perfect for satisfying your cravings while exploring the city.

Unwind in Seoul's Serene Surroundings

Escape the hustle and bustle of the city and discover the serene side of Seoul. Visit Namsan Park, a beautiful oasis in the heart of the city. Take a leisurely walk along the trails, enjoy the colorful flora, and embrace the tranquility.

Another hidden gem is Bukhansan National Park, located just outside the city. Lace up your hiking boots and embark on a mountain adventure. The park offers a range of hiking trails suitable for all levels, providing breathtaking views and a refreshing escape into nature.

Seoul is a city that seamlessly blends the old and the new, offering visitors a unique and captivating experience. From its vibrant culture to its diverse culinary scene and serene surroundings, there is truly something for everyone in Seoul. So pack your bags, prepare your taste buds, and get ready for an unforgettable journey through this fascinating city. Seoul is waiting to be explored!

UPDATED IN FALL 2020!

3 Days in the Vibrant City of Seoul and the Serene Countryside of Gyeonggi

It's your first time in South Korea and of course you are excited to see all the top tourist destinations. You want to go around Seoul, but at the same time experience a day away from the hustle and bustle of the city. But then you only have a limited time – 3 days, to be exact – to visit all the best places! Would you cram all the possible itinerary in a day and rush everything? I suggest not.

If you cannot walk for miles, you may not last a day as a tourist in South Korea. If you cram everything in a day, you will definitely find yourself exhausted and lacking energy for the next day ahead. I have personally experienced this and so did many of the tourists that have been there. Let me help you slow down, take a moment to revel in the sceneries before you, and enjoy the best of what South Korea has to offer - with the bonus of unwinding as each day ends, Korean style! With this itinerary, I shall give you a tour and help you experience the vibrant city of Seoul and the serene countryside of Gapyeong.

>This 3-day Seoul itinerary is arranged according to certain themes such as:

Day 1: Top Sites in Seoul – You are bound to see the most iconic places in the nation’s capital on your first day.

Day 2: Away From the City – After witnessing the beauty of Seoul’s most iconic places, it is now time to enjoy what nature has to offer outside the big city.

Day 3: Korea’s Past and Present – On your last day in Korea, you will visit museums, cafés, and districts where you will know more about Korea’s history and what Koreans nowadays are into.

Some of the featured sights in this Seoul itinerary are:

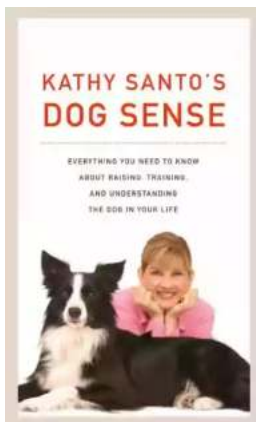

- The grand palaces: Gyeongbokgung and Chandeokgung
- The couple’s paradise – N Seoul Tower
- The famous (especially among those who watch Korean Dramas) Nami Island
- The nature lover’s heaven – Morning Calm Arboretum
- The poignant War Memorial of Korea
- Shopping districts from Dongdaemun and beyond
- And a lot more!

Why should you get this itinerary?

Because apart from the amazing sights, this itinerary includes:

- Tips on how to save money
- Where to eat and which food to try
- What to prepare before the actual trip
- A guide on how to get to your hotel from the airport
- Comprehensive public transportation guide and tips
- Where to buy and what to buy in the famous shopping districts
- Free and not-so-free activities you should try
- Other suggested tourist spots to visit apart from the 3-day itinerary
- Best time to go (day, night, winter, spring, summer, or fall)
- A special attraction for pet lovers
- Reminders on what to do before you leave South Korea
- Lastly, if you have any questions feel free to contact me. My e-mail is provided in the itinerary. I'll be more than happy to help you!

I guarantee that you will have a vacation to remember as you experience the best of Seoul and Gapyeong!
