But it's the diverse avian life that truly steals the show at Wild Bird Haven. From the magnificent Bald Eagles soaring majestically across the sky to the delicate Hummingbirds flitting about like miniature gems, every path you tread reveals a new story waiting to be discovered.

One of the remarkable species you'll encounter here is the Great Blue Heron. With its elegant blue-gray plumage and striking stature, watching this bird is a truly mesmerizing experience. Whether it's gracefully wading through the tranquil waters or taking flight across the vast expanse of the haven, the Great Blue Heron never fails to enthrall visitors.

As you venture deeper into the forest, you'll stumble upon groups of vibrant Wood Ducks, with their stunning multicolored feathers adding a splash of vivid hues to the serene surroundings. These ducks are known for their unique whistling sound, serving as a reminder of how each inhabitant contributes to the symphony of nature at Wild Bird Haven.

Beyond the woods lie the enchanting prairie fields, where the curious and playful Meadowlarks greet visitors with their mesmerizing tunes. Their lively melodies resonate through the air, harmonizing with the gentle rustling of leaves, creating a truly unforgettable auditory experience.

As dusk settles over Wild Bird Haven, a new cast of characters emerges. The Barred Owls awaken, ready to charm visitors with their distinct hooting calls. Their piercing eyes, glowing in the dark, evoke a sense of mystery and allure, leaving you in awe of their nocturnal prowess.

No trip to Wild Bird Haven is complete without witnessing the mesmerizing courtship dance of the Sandhill Cranes. With their intricate dance routine, symphonies of calls, and grand gestures, these majestic birds put on a show that rivals even the finest performances nature has to offer. It's a sight that stays etched in your memory forever.

Wild Bird Haven is not just a sanctuary brimming with remarkable birds; it's a place of conservation and education. The dedicated staff and volunteers work tirelessly to protect the habitat and raise awareness about the importance of preserving these delicate ecosystems. Whether you're a seasoned bird enthusiast or a curious explorer, the haven offers educational programs and guided tours to enhance your experience while fostering a deep appreciation for the incredible world of birds.

So, if you're ready to escape the chaos and immerse yourself in a breathtaking sanctuary where the tales of its wild bird inhabitants unfold before your eyes, Wild Bird Haven awaits. Prepare to be captivated by the beauty, inspired by nature's wonders, and leave with cherished memories that you'll carry with you for a lifetime.

Winner, Evelyn Richardson Memorial Prize for Non-Fiction

Well-known naturalist and artist Linda Johns shares her woodland home with a menagerie of injured wild birds — starlings, blue jays, pigeons, baby woodpeckers, a rose-breasted grosbeak, a semi-palmated sandpiper, and even a gannet. She and her "saner half," Mack, have gone so far as to transform their living room into an indoor forest, complete with two dead trees providing a variety of perches and a screened porch making do as a practise flyway. Johns nurses her feathered convalescents day and night, helping them to drink and bathe and hunt, and gaining deep insights into their highly individual personalities. Most she attempts to release back into the wild but a few, inevitably, move in to stay.

Birds of a Feather: Tales of a Wild Bird Haven is a warm and funny account of eight months — from May to December — in the life of this caring wildlife rescuer. Fans of Johns's earlier wildlife books will relish her humorous descriptions of the antics of such irresistible characters as Blossom, the media-savvy chicken, and the goats Mower and Munch. Enhanced by line drawings of her avian housemates, this delightful collection of anecdotes in the tradition of James Herriot and Farley Mowat celebrates some of Nature's smallest and most awe-inspiring miracles.
