Before I close my eyes, I need you to know that my heart, love, and prayers were always present, even in my absence.

Sometimes being the father that a man wishes he could be becomes overshadowed by his pride, fears, and anger of the man that he used to be.

I have allowed my pride, fears, and anger to take precious moments away from my life that I will never be able to get back.

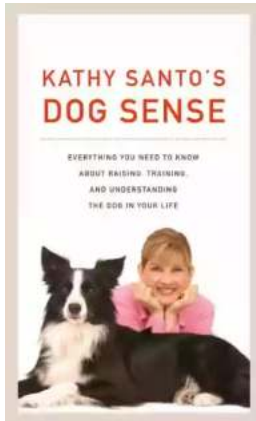

So, I am writing this book to give back all the knowledge that a father would want his Goddess to have.

You are what inspires a male to want to become a Man. For your acceptance, I have always tried to become a Better Man.

All the hate and anger that you may have towards me, please allow me to carry those burdens so that your heart and soul can be free.

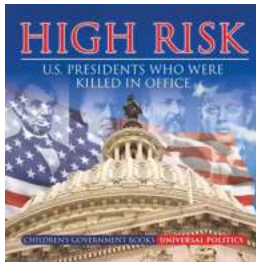

I pray that this book will be the first step that allows us to be as close as I have always wished that we could be.

Before I close my eyes...
