This book tells the true story of the Turkish 42nd Regiment in the Gallipoli War in 1915. Positioned at Kerevizdere (Kereves Dere in French sources) in the Seddulbahir area of Gallipoli, the regiment fought against the French Expeditionary Corps of the Orient. Based on war diaries of the troops from the Turkish and French archives that see the light for the first time, the book offers a unique insight into what was happening in the Turkish and French side of the trenches on the same days. This is one of the few books that depicts the Ottoman side of the events.
