Each bottle from The Last Drops collection is a testament to the dedication and passion of the winemakers. Every step of the winemaking process, from handpicking the grapes to fermenting and aging the wine, is meticulously executed to ensure unparalleled quality.

The Birthplace of The Last Drops

Located in the luscious valleys of the Barossa and Eden regions of Australia, the Jacob's Creek Australia Winery serves as the birthplace of The Last Drops. This winery stands as a testament to Jacob's Creek's commitment to producing exceptional wines since its establishment in 1847.

At the winery, visitors have the opportunity to witness the winemaking process firsthand. From the sprawling vineyards to the state-of-the-art cellars, every aspect of the winemaking journey can be experienced. It is here that The Last Drops is painstakingly crafted, capturing the essence of the land and the expertise of the winemakers.

The Exquisite Flavors of The Last Drops

The Last Drops collection boasts a range of wines that showcase the diverse terroir and grape varieties of Australia. From rich and velvety reds to crisp and refreshing whites, there is a bottle to suit every palate.

One standout from this collection is the Last Drops Shiraz. Grown in the sun-drenched regions of Barossa Valley, this bold and robust wine captivates with layers of dark fruits, peppery spice, and a hint of chocolate. With each sip, the Last Drops Shiraz envelopes the palate in a symphony of flavors, leaving a lasting impression.

Another gem from the collection is the Last Drops Chardonnay. Harvested from the cool climate of Eden Valley, this elegant and well-balanced wine delights with notes of tropical fruits, citrus, and a subtle vanilla undertone. The Last Drops Chardonnay offers a refreshing escape, transporting the drinker to a sun-kissed paradise.

Whether you are a seasoned wine connoisseur or a novice exploring the world of wine, The Last Drops from Jacob's Creek Australia is a collection that will engage your senses and leave a lasting impression.
