I was living the normal American dream when an earthquake, divorce, turned the dream into a nightmare. Trying to wake from this bad dream took time, determination, allot of experimenting and some luck. After a couple of years filling my time by drinking and chasing women, I was introduced to the game of Texas Holdem. Never having gambled a day in my life, I spent the next few years learning how to make money as a gambler and traveling the US doing so. In and out of casinos, dark rooms behind bars and literally underground in a basement was the scene where most of my waking hours were spent. My passion for the game was only succeeded by my passion for beautiful women. With cash in hand now was the time to take my passion for my newest business venture abroad and some interesting places it certainly took me. Having honed my skills of seduction and my passion not waning at all, I make a stop in the Philippine Islands to meet the Asian Goddesses men dream of, and what a stop it turned out to be! There was no time for gambling with the lovely ladies of the Islands keeping me distracted day and night. Join me, a man resurrected from the rubble of a shattered life, on a journey that most men only dream about.
