

The Ultimate Guide to the Special Colt Starting Clinic With Harry Whitney - Unlocking Your Horse's Full Potential!

Are you ready to take your horsemanship skills to the next level? Look no further! Harry Whitney, a renowned horse trainer and clinician, is holding a special Colt Starting Clinic that will revolutionize the way you communicate with and train your horse. This exclusive opportunity is not to be missed!

What is Colt Starting?

Before we dive into the details of this extraordinary clinic, let's first understand what colt starting entails. Colt starting refers to the initial training process of young horses, typically between two and four years old, where they learn the fundamentals of riding and setting the foundation for their future development.

Harry Whitney, with his decades of experience and deep understanding of horse behavior, has perfected his colt starting techniques to create a unique and highly effective approach. His gentle yet firm methods enable horses to build trust, respect, and confidence from the very beginning, setting them up for a successful partnership with their human handlers.
