Forced to leave her childhood home, Abigail Clarke flees to the royal capital of North Carolina. She soon finds that there are few jobs for a girl who's only been trained to be a planter's wife or a healer. Starting over as Abby, she lies her way into a position as a maid in the royal governor's household.

But her healing skills—and her magical talent for knowing—have drawn the attention of the governor's stepson. Nathaniel Eton is charming, mysterious—and completely forbidden to a servant. Yet Abby can't resist her fascination with him... until his secrets threaten to put the fragile, new life she's created into jeopardy.
